THEY'RE DOING IT—well, not everyone, but those rodeo cowboys are. They are riding, roping and wrestling those beasts at the Polo Grounds. They will be doing it today and Sunday at the Polo Grounds.

Western Events Already Started

"Rake 'em and fan 'em, weah heah!"

The rodeo cowboys are in Palm Springs, and a Wild West weekend is in full swing.

It got underway last night with the big Rodeo Ball at the Desert Inn, with over 300 persons liberally sprinkled with celebrities on hand.

Then, starting in the cool of this morning, the folks gathered at the Santa Fe Savings & Loan parking lot for a chuckwagon breakfast served by the Palm Springs Lions Club.

It picked up momentum with a procession down Palm Canyon Drive this morning, with the anual Rodeo Parade.

Then all the wild bucking, roping, steer wrestling, trick riding and other rodeo events were scheduled to start at 2 p.m. at the Polo Grounds, setting off two days of official Rodeo Cowboys Association competition.

The entire affair is being sponsored by the Palm Springs Mounted Police, to raise funds for emergency equipment —and to provide a weekend of Wild West fun for the resort's residents and visitors.

Democrats to Back Brown

FRESNO, Calif. (UPI) —Grass roots Democrats today lined up behind the re-election bids of Gov. Edmund G. Brown and Lt. Gov. Glenn M. Anderson.

The California Democratic Council, an organization composed of 650 local-level clubs with some 70,000 members, opened a three-day convention Friday night with a resounding vote in favor of four more years for the Brown-Anderson ticket.

Before the convention adjourns, it is expected to give the same endorsement to Richard Richards currently state senator from Los Angeles, as a candidate for U.S. senator; Controller Alan Cranston; Treasurer Bert Betts and Attorney General Stanley Mosk.

Young Author

Karen Gene Hedglin, eight-year-old Thousand Palms girl, was notified that her original contribution to Jack and Jill magazine had been chosen for publication from hundreds submitted in a "finish this story" contest.

Egner Is Named to Head GOP

The new president of the Palm Springs Republican Assembly for 1962-3 will be Carl C. Egner, as a result of the annual election held Friday in the board rooms of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce. Egner had served as secretary of the group for the last year. He succeeds James Hicks as president.

Other officers seated at the meeting included Mrs. Jane Dill Harold West and George Pyror, vice presidents; Geraldine Vanek, secretary; Gerald Mitchell, treasurer.

A Missouri native, Egner held various executive positions with oil well supply manufacturers and distributors in Oklahoma and Texas until his retirement in 1958, at which time he moved to Palm Springs.

An active Republican all his life, Egner took a leading part in the election of Bruce Alger, Texas' first Republican Congressman since Reconstruction days.

INJURED Cynthia Koppis, 11, of San Bernardino, was comforted at 8:35 a.m. today as she awaited an ambulance after being struck in crosswalk in 600 block of South Palm Canyon Drive by post office truck driven by Wardell Ward, 19, of 598 E. Arenas Road. Truck skidded right, bounded into yard at 634 S. Palm Canyon Drive when Ward applied brakes, police said. Desert Hospital reported that Cynthia suffered a broken arm and cuts. She is daughter of Mrs. William B. Toth, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Satterfield here. (Desert Sun Photo)

OAS Bars Cuba as Member

Ministers in Full Agreement

PUNTA DEL ESTE (UPI) — The foreign ministers of 20 free Western Hemisphere republics agreed today that a Communist state cannot be a member of the Organization of American States.

The agreement was announced following a meeting of U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk and eight other key hemisphere foreign ministers on a draft resolution to suspend Cuba from the inter-American system.

A small work group of foreign ministers attending the inter-American conference here immediately began drafting a new text of a final resolution to try to carry out the obvious meaning of today's decision, now to oust Fidel Castro's Cuba from the community of American nations.

The nine-nation group that met late this morning represented all points of view except that of Cuba. It reported earlier that it was making progress on a resolution to suspend Cuba.

Rush said "the work continues and we are very optimistic."

Brazilian Foreign Minister Santiago Dantas said the foreign ministers from nine key American nations had "made great progress" in a late morning meeting. He predicted a document of major importance would come out of the meeting.

Before today's working group session, fears were expressed that the United States might fail in efforts to reach agreement with key Latin American nations on how and when to suspend Castro's Cuba from the inter-American system.

There was no certainty of quick agreement. Colombian Foreign Minister Jose J. Caicedo Castilla hinted Friday night that the lack of agreement may make it necessary to extend the foreign ministers' conference here past the Monday deadline originally set for adjournment.

A U.S. delegate said the talks might continue until Wednesday.

Rusk was pressing for immediate suspension of Cuba by the conferees here.

GOSHEN!, was the expression to fit Abby Dalton's face when she received her trophy as Queen of the Rodeo last night at the big Rodeo Ball in the Desert Inn, where over 300 gathered to set off a weekend of "good, ol' Western-style fun." (PS NewsPhoto)

News In Brief

ALGIERS (UPI)—The outlawed Secret Army Organization (OAS) cut into the airwaves to make a new anti-government pirate broad cast today as the new year's death toll from Moslem-European violence in Algiera soared toward the 500 mark.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—U.S. officials feel that Russia's rejection of the West's latest proposals makes it perfectly clear that the Soviet Union wants no part of any nuclear best ban.

Russia turned down a U. S. - British proposal to merge the three - power Geneva test ban talks with 18 - nation disarmament negotiations in March.

NEW CONCORD, Ohio (UPI)— The parents of astronaut John H. Glenn expressed relief today when their son's planned space shot was called off because of bad weather.

The elderly couple who had followed the long delays on three television sets sent word of their feelings through a spokesman. He indicated they would not meet the dozens of newsmen here for the big event.

VANDENBERG AFB (UPI) — The Pasha of Kemitra, cousin of King Hassan II of Morocco, toured this military installation today as part of a two-month visit to the United States that started earlier this month in New York.

The Pasha arrived in Southern California last week and was welcomed at Palm Desert by former president Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Overcast Skies May Postpone Until Tuesday

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — A heavy overcast that wouldn't go away spoiled an almost perfect countdown today and forced postponement of America's first attempt to launch a man into orbit.

It was possible that the shot would have to be put off to Tuesday if not later. The forecast was for unfavorable weather for at least the next two days.

Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. took the postponement in apparent good spirits despite 5 hours and 15 minutes strapped to his cushioned couch in the little space cabin.

"Well," he said, "there'll be another day."

He had begun this day not only ready but eager to go on his mission, which was to break the space barrier for America. His ton-and-a-half spacecraft was in good shape. The big Atlas booster was earning marks for good behavior.

But the weather at the launch site was not cooperating. A fleet of more than 25 ships, an air task force of more than 60 planes, and more than 15,000 trained men were poised to pluck Glenn from the Atlantic when he completed his hoped-for three orbits around the earth.

Thousands of scientists, technicians, officials, reporters, photographers, and sightseers were straining toward the moment when the 10-story high capsule-Atlas combination would lift into the sky from Pad 14. Millions of other Americans were glued to their television sets.

JFK, Too, Is Unhappy

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — President Kennedy expressed disappointment today at the postponment of America's first attempt to rocket a man into orbit.

The President, watching preparations for the flight on television, was notified by telephone two minutes before the public announcement that the flight had been called off because of weather.

Ranger III Speeds to Sun Orbit

GOLDSTONE TRACKING STATION, Calif. (UPI) — America's grotesque space robot, Ranger III, acting on a command from this missile tracking station, sped up by about 90 miles an hour early today on its picture-taking trip past the moon.

Scientists said the added speed was "just enough so that the rocket will go on around the sun instead of returning to earth."

—Cut down the time of the trip by about 1½ hours.

—Enable Ranger III's television cameras to obtain the nearest and possibly the best photographs of the far side of the moon.

The commands to the space craft — which originally was to have landed on the moon—were transmitted successfully from this southern California desert tracking station, about 200 miles northeast of Los Angeles.

The mid-course command was transmitted from this tracking station at 5 a.m. EST by radio.

If all goes as expected, the cameras mounted in Ranger III will begin taking pictures of the moon late Sunday morning.

The 727-pound Ranger III was to have crash landed on the surface of the moon. But the Atlas rocket that gave it the first boost away from earth Friday pushed it too fast too soon.

The moon shot, to be successful, demanded a perfection incredibly difficult to obtain. It involved the first attempt to steer a space craft in mid-flight with "requests" from earth.

By United Press International

Today is Saturday, Jan. 27, the 27th day of th year with 338 to follow in 1962.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

There are no morning or evening stars.

On this day in history:

In 1832, the creator of the immortal "Alice in Wonderland," Lewis Carroll, was born.

In 1880, a patent for an electric incandescent lamp was granted to Thomas Edison of Menlo Park, N.J.

In 1888, the National Geographic Society was founded in Washington.

In 1943, the United States 8th Air Force staged the first all-American air raid on Germany in broad daylight.

A thought for the day: American essayist and poet Ralph Waldo Emerson once said: "A man is a bundle of relations, a knot of roots, whose flower and fruitage is the world."

Long Investigation on Old Blood Sale Arrest

NEW YORK (UPI) — Public Health Service officials said today the indictment of a New York blood dealer followed a four-month investigation involving laborious checking of records to trace shipments of allegedly outdated human blood to hospitals.

John P. Calise, 51, New Rochelle, N.Y., and Westchester Blood Service, Inc., of which he was president, were named in an 80-count federal indictment returned here Thursday. They were charged with supplying dangerously outdated blood to 92 hospitals in New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts and Rhode Island and to a blood supply service in Puerto Rico.

The firm has since gone out of business.

Calise allegedly altered labels on blood containers to disguise the fact that the blood, used in transfusions, was from 3 to 42 days too old for human use under Public Health Service regulations. Blood must be less than 21 days old to be used in a transfusion, according to regulations.

Democratic Club To Hear Report On Council Meet

The Palm Springs Area Democratic Club will hear a full report on the California Democratic Council endorsing convention in Fresno Jan. 26-28, in a Feb. 6 meeting.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the community conference room of the Santa Fe Federal Savings and Loan Association, Stanley Spiegelman, president, reported.

Reports on the state convention will be given by Spielgelman, Lionel Steinberg, and Mrs. Natalie Myers.

Volunteers, sought to man the new Desert Democratic Headquarters at 139 E. Andreas Road, Palm Springs, are asked to contact Mrs. Myers.

WIVES BAN BAR

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The Reading Railroad said Thursday it is dropping plans to install a bar car on the evening commuter runs.

The railroad said "overwhelming" opposition from housewives whose husbands ride the trains was the cause.

C.C. Water Cut Monday

CATHEDRAL CITY — Installation of 10 new fire hydrants here will necessitate some interuptions of water service Monday through Thursday, Robert Hollister announced.

Hollister, secretary of the Sunair-Charlesworth County Fire Protection District, said that the shut-off of water will be "intermittent, and brief as possible." He explained that the interruptions have to be made during daylight hours.

Ten new hydrants have been installed in the district in the past year, Hollister said.

The trees are such a lovely sight.
A tiny breeze is wisping by,
High above in a pinkish sky.
God has made the trees that way
And there I hope they'll always stay.

THE FROG
By Debbie Estel (9)

I have a frog.
He lives in the water.
His home's on a log
And I named him Squatter.

I have a frog.
We play so long
He eats like a hog
And sings a song.

I have a frog.
He jumps so high
He touches the fog
Up in the sky.

I have a frog
Who swims all day.
He gets on a log
to rest and play.

COULD WE ADJUST?

Disagreement Over Disarmament Issue

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Members of the House-Senate economic Committee disagreed today over the chief White House economist's contention that the naton's economy "could adjust quite readily" to the impact of disarmament.

Chairman Walter W. Heller of President Kennedy's Council of Economic Advisers made the statement at a committee hearing Thursday on the President's economic message and legislative recommendations.

Two committee members, Sens. John J. Sparkman, D-Ala., and Prescott Bush, R-Conn., agreed with Heller's theory in separate interviews.

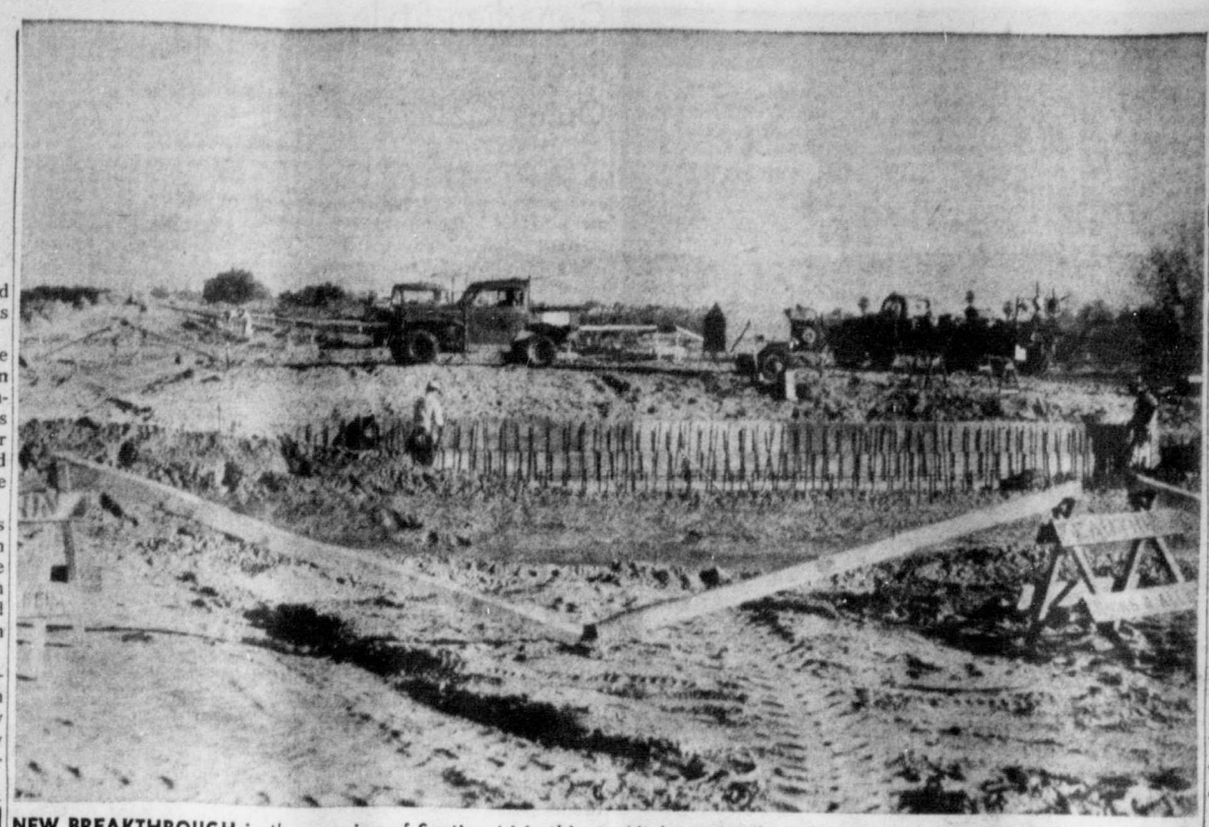
But Rep. William B. Widnall, R-N.J., termed it a "ridiculous assumption."

The committee, headed by Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., scheduled Budget Director David E. Bell as its witness for today.

Heller told the committee he felt that a major reduction in armament would mean lower individual taxes, with citizens spending the additional money for other things. He said this demand for other items could offset the cutback in military industries.

The economist said statstics show that the average American spends 93 per cent of what he receives, regardless of how much it is. Lower taxes from a slashed federal arms budget would mean greater individual spending.

Heller cited the years immedately after World War II, when military spendng was sharply cut back but the overall economy boomed under the demand for civilian items.



NEW BREAKTHROUGH in the opening of Section 14 is this street project extending Avenida Caballeros through from Alejo Road to Ramon Road. The $39,154 gas tax project is expected to be completed by mid-February. Hicks and Allred Construction Co. is installing the 32 foot-wide street on the 100-foot right of way. Curbing is installed at the major intersections on the job, and culverts (foreground) will handle future road expansion.

Parents Get Examples Of Teaching

TWENTYNINE PALMS — Modern methods of teaching were witnessed by parents at the monthly meeting of the Twentynine Palms Elementary School PTA for January.

Purpose of the demonstrations, called a "Teaching Fair," was to give parents a general idea of the way instructions were given at the school, according to school principl McCune.

The demonstrations consisted of sample classes in typing, eighth grade physics, fourth grade art and second grade geometry. All demonstrations were conducted by teachers and their regular students.

Most witnessed event was a discussion of the circle and its relative terms by the second grade geometry class.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Forty-five Iranian students sat resolutely in the lobby of the Iranian Embassy for an hour and a half Tuesday to protest "oppressive" measures by the Iranian government to control recent student demonstrations in Iran.

LIGHTER SIDE

Pony Express Needed

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI)—If there is a Boy Scout around who is bucking for a merit badge in wigwaggery, here's a chance for him to do his good turn for the day.

I need someone skilled in the use of signal flags to send a message to the good people who live on the other side of the mountain from Reeds Spring, Mo.

According to an item I saw in the Congressional Record, the residents of that isolated community in the Missouri Ozarks have petitioned the Post Office Deparment for a franchise to operate a Pony Express service.

Their spokesman explained that they now have to travel six miles over the mountain to reach the nearest point where mail is delivered. If they want to visit the post office, they have to go 14 miles.

Once Had Office

In a letter to the postmaster general, which was reprinted in the record, Darrel D. Presnell of the Table Rock Lake Chamber of Commerce said there used to be a post office "within spitting distance" of the community.

Presnell said the area "has been surveyed and resurveyed until the surveyors meet each other coming and going. Reams of petitions have been dutifully signed and sent to some never-never land to be heard from no more."

In fact, he said, the standard greeting in those parts if "I'll sign your petition if you'll sign mine." But despite all of the surveying and petitioning, there is still a mountain between them and the mail.

This is what prompted Presnell in desperation to seek the postmaster general's permission to operate a Pony Express.

"And please use your most potent influence to allay another round of surveys," he added.

Presnell said the community also was without telephone service, and that is why I thought a Boy Scout might come in handy. I would like to wig-wag word across the mountain that they are not alone in this privation.

On tiny Niuafo'ou Island in the South Pacific, the situation is even worse. It having no harbor, the islanders have to swim out to meet passing ships and collect the mail in sealed biscuit tins.

According to the National Geographic Society, Niuafo'ou probably is the only place on earth "where sharks rather than dogs nip at the heels of the postman."

So even if the Missouri mountaineers don't get a Pony Express, they still have something to be thankful for.

Troubles in World For Both Sides

Notes from the foreign news cables:

French Troubles:

French troubles in North Africa seem certain to get worse instead of better in coming weeks. Violence and bloodshed present a grim counterpoint to efforts at negotiation. And, while the knife and pistol speak, the attempts to reach agreement by discussion falter.

French officials in Paris believe that the bombings in France by the illegal Secret Army Organization are designed largely to discredit President Charles de Gaulle and his government.

They doubt the OAS is preparing an armed coup against De Gaulle in France itself — although this has been reported often enough. The officials believe, on the contrary, the OAS's aim may be to force De Gaulle out of office.

Khrushchev Squeeze:

There is a persistent but unconfirmed rumor being heard around Europe that Premier Nikita Khushchev, instead of shooting the political losers in Soviet power politics, has set up an economic squeeze on them. He is reported to have set up a system for reducing their pensions by nine-tenths, so that they are just able to exist for the rest of their lives. There is no way of confirming this, but former President Kliment Voroshilov, for instance, is said to be getting only the quivalent of $75 a month.

British Pressure:

Expect Britain to step up pressure for a speedy decision of the European members on London's application to join the common market. Now that the six members have mended their fences and reached agreement on conflicting agricultural policies, the program appears firmer than ever.

Communist Economy:

Look for the shaky East German economy to suffer serious new setbacks in the next few months as a result of a growing dissatisfaction by labor caused by the construction of the wall dividing East and West Berlin. East Germans were told by their Red rulers after the wall was set up that they must work harder, but would get no pay hikes. The first signs of a downhill slide were noted in recent weeks.

Moscow Wooing:

The Soviet Union is expected to continue its wooing of West Germany for direct talks with Moscow in efforts to split Bonn from the West. The chances of success are practically invisible at the present time, but the Kremlin is persistent.

Canadian-Style Bacon Stars in Quick Casserole

Bacon - Go - Around is a casserole planned especially for those days when you must prepare supper in a jiffy. The waking hours of most homemakers keep them plenty busy. Quickly put together meals are often welcomed.

This casserole calls for Canadian-style bacon slices, a can of pork and beans, a can of pineapple slices, mustard and onion. You'll have it assembled in minutes says home economist Reba Staggs. It's called Bacon-Go-Around because the bacon and pineapple make a circle around the top of the casserole. Try it for a real taste pleaser at casual, quickie suppers.

Bacon-Go-Around

8 slices Canadian-style bacon, cut ¼ inch thick
1 can (1 pound 15 ounces) pork and beans
2 tablespoons chopped onion teaspoon dry mustard
1 can (9 ounces) sliced pineapple, drained.

Combine beans, onion and dry mustard in a 1½-quart baking dish. Cut pineapple slices in half. Overlap Canadian - style bacon and pineapple in circle on top of bean mixture. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 40 minutes. 4 to 5 servings.

Hawaii on Film Interests Crowd

An interested crowd gathered in the new Desert Braemar club room to watch Hollis Brown show colored slides and movies, which he had taken in Hawaii. Mrs. Brown narrated the films in a lively and interesting manner, giving descriptions of their colorful stay in the Islands.

Pervy Film on Paris Shown to OESta Club

The robes and obis of Japan and the saris of India were modeled and Professor Adolphe Pervy demonstrated how to drape a sari, as part of the program that followed the luncheon meeting of OESta Social Club held at the Desert Inn.

Dr. Pervy, who takes one tour to Europe and one around the world each year, also commented on fashions in the fashion centers of Paris and Kyoto.

The fashions were an interesting prelude to the showing of his 16 mm color film, "The Story of Paris." A native Parisian, Pervy filmed the story himself over a period of three years. Unlike the ordinary tour, the film follows the chronological history of the Queen of Cities, showing its origin on an island in the Seine, and narrating the story of the fishermen, who lived there before Caesar conquered Gaul. Pointing out the influence of the Romans and the English, Pervy's story takes the viewers through the Middle Ages and the Renaissance, through the fantastic times of the court splendor, when Louis' reign brought the country to the verge of bankruptcy and then into revolution, through Napoleon to modern Paris.

Following the luncheon and program President Ethel Fruitman invited the women to gather about the tables in the Inn's Italian Room for an afternoon of cards.

Teenage Marriage a Threat To the American Family

Teenage marriage is the greatest threat to the family in United States today, says Dr. David R. Mace, a recognized marriage counselor.

He believes marriage in this country is becoming repetitive and teenage marriages are largely the cause.

Dr. Mace finds nothing in favor of teenage marriage because a teen-ager is not sufficiently mature.

"When he finds himself unhappy in his marriage, he simply terminates it and forms the habit of changing marriage partners throughout his life," Dr. Mace says.

He is worried about the trend toward early and multiple marriages because "when you sabotage the family unit, you sabotage the culture."

U.S. children are bulldozed into early maturity by parents eager for them to be "advanced" and by commercial interests eager to sell them their products, says Dr. Mace, who believes children should be allowed to develop at their own rate.

"Thus we find the child, at a time when he needs to be left alone to figure out his own values and build up his confidence, forced into situations" which bring "strains and anxiety he should not have to endure."

JUNE IN JANUARY

To Show Spring Styles

Advance ticket reservations indicate that the fashion show luncheon which Palm Springs Woman's Club will stage at El Mirador on Tuesday, Jan. 30, will be an overwhelming success, according to Mrs. Herbert Burns, chairman, and Mrs. Marvin Cartwright, her co-chairman.

Using a "June in January" theme, so perfect for Palm Springs, the show will present the smartest and newest courturier designs from Bullocks Wilshire and Bullocks Palm Springs, modeled by professional mannequins. Zoella Frederickson, professional organist, will play background music on a Hammond organ. A member of the Club, she is donating her services for the benefit affair, and the public speaker and the organ are being supplied by the Hammond Organ Studios in Riverside.

American, French and Italian designers will be represented including the labels of Anthony Blotta, Wragge, Montesanto, Rentner, Charles Le Maire, Ben Reig, Jenkins, Marquise, Irene, Peggy Hunt and Georgia Bullock. Accenting the beauty of the Silver Palm Room, Mrs. Chester Matson and her decorating committee are using a pink and silver theme throughout, with floral arrangements on each pink-covered table.

The group of hostesses will be Mmes. Robert Backstrom, Allan James, Carol Lombard, Howard Matthews, Ben Read, Glenn Watson and George O. Wheeler.

The Woman's Club itself is well represented with over 200 reservations, and others are pouring in as hostesses plan their tables. Mrs. Herbert Carpenter will have as her guests Mmes. John Costello, Frank Ryan, Glenn Austin, Kenneth Kirk, Harold Murphy, Ed Robbin, Walter McManus znd Ed Hunt. One of the largest reservations, for a table of 40, has been made by Mrs. A. R. Brattrud. Mrs. Jack Williams, charter member, and Mrs. Thomas Holland will each hostess a table for eight, as will Mrs. Glenn Watson. Among Mrs. Watson's guests will be Mrs. Ralph Clock, a former president of Palm Springs Woman's Club.

Mrs. Paul Aust will head a table for four. A table from the "400" will include Mmes. Joe Regorrah, J. Aiken Miller, Allan Petty, Lou Doty, Greg Burns and John Heddon. With Mrs. Gracie Bremmer of Gracia Grande will be Mmes. Virgil Collins, R. K. Hutzell, William Sodde, Anne Kerrs and Lillian Murphy.

Among others with reservations are Mmes. Austin McManus, Richard Bagdasarian, Jack Luccareni, M. O. Anderson, Jeff Klinker, Carl Williams, Ray Johnson, John Wright, Frederick B. Heittcamp.

Those still wishing reservations should call Mrs. George Manington, ticket chairman, or any of the committee members, Mmes. R. R. Buttcane, Emmett Kesling and Fred Udell.

Proceeds from the $7.50 a plate luncheon will go into the club's scholarship fund.

Palm Desert Women Enjoy South-of-the-Border Tour

By PAT ANDERSON

Interesting people were met and interesting places visited by Mrs. George E. (Meva) Hutchins and Mrs. Ronald E. (Aldeen) Moran of Palm Desert, when they flew to Mexico City to join a group that was making a south-of-the-border tour.

Their good natured Mexican guide, whose name was Roberto Durand, (Roberto had been attached to the Mexican Embassy in Paris before the war and returned to Mexico with a Parisian wife), had as a neighbor the wealthy and famous Cantinflas. Roberto told Meva that Cantinflas was a very, very generous man who kept an office in Mexico City just to care for the shoe shine boys, as he, Cantinflas, had been one when a small boy.

Meva told of visiting a jungle village in Pirates Cove (near Acapulco) where native Mexicans live in native style. Huge tidal waves wash in occasionally. Roberto regaled them with the story of how he rescued a baby from the breast of a sleeping mother, as the water came in so quietly she did not awaken in time.

Their night tour of Mexico City took them to the top of the Latin American Tower, which reaches 45 stories into the sky. They call it the highest building in the world (not the tallest) because the elevation of Mexico City is already over 7,200 feet. A typical Mexican night club, in Spanish type setting, was next where typical Mexican food, music, and costumes were enjoyed. The final night spot was on the tourista side — a mixture of Copacabana and the Latin Quarter.

The highlight of the trip, entertainment wise, Meva said, was the 9 a.m. Sunday morning matinee of the Mexican Ballet at the Palacio des Bellas Artes. This group features authentic historical and colorful Indian and Mexican dances, costumes and music. The company spends six months in Mexico City (during the tourist season, November to April) then tours Europe for three months and is then in the United States for three months. It opens with Indians calling with conch shells against a background of 50 beautiful voices to set the mood. A dance pageant follows, from the ancient to the modern, from birth to courtship, marriage to death, portraying the ways and thinking of the people.

Meva said that Roberto will reverse his itinerary next month taking a Mexican group as far as Seattle. He told her that it is much easier to guide the Americans through Mexico as the language barrier is not so great.

Aldeen and Meva disembarked at Indio while the rest drove into Los Angeles, terminal point of the tour.

THE WIVES WHO gathered at Tennis Club for a fashion show-luncheon had something in common . . . professional husbands, Among the doctors' and lawyers' wives gathered for the affair were, from left, Mrs. Merrill Brown, Mrs. Saul Ruskin and Mrs. Hilton McCabe. (P.S. NewPshoto)

Zippers, Belts Need Checking

A careful shopper checks accessories — belts, buckles, zippers, buttons — as well as the garment they're attached to before she buys. Remember these things: paper-backed belts may be damaged when washed; plastic backing may melt when ironed. Chrome or aluminum buckles won't rust, but some other metals may. Fabric glued to buckles rather than sewn may separate in water or even dry cleaning solvent. Some buttons with metal backing can rust and stain the garment. Some cheap buttons melt in ironing. (Pearl buttons are still the most launderable.)

To keep ownership of boots and overshoes from getting mixed, fasten them together with a spring - type clothes pin which has the owner's name on it.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

Win and Charles Becker have sold their Palos Verdes home, but Palm Springs is not losing them (they plan to buy or build at Thunderbird Country Club next year) but rather gaining a couple of attractive Texans, Louise and Troy Post of Dallas. The Posts, who have three children, a son and two daughters, had visited the Beckers here and when they learned the house was on the market decided to buy it. Post is a financier, interested in several insurance companies, and with Ed Pawley is part owner of Cocoanut Island in Hawaii, where they spend their summers. They own one of the finest homes in Dallas and their new million dollar house there is nearing completion.

The Becker house, which they bought from Ada and Ray Dodge, and completely re-decorated, has one of the largest private pools in Palm Springs and championship size tennis courts. It has been the scene of many receptions, Derby Day parties and last spring's big party on the tennis courts that will go down in Palm Springs history, filed under "unforgettable."

The Beckers do not give up possession of the house until March, but Win is flying to Florida on Monday to meet Charlie and they are going shopping for an 85-foot boat in which they can cruise the inland waterways. Win says that they can take a boat from Miami to Louisville for the Derby by an inland route and that they and Al Hunts may do that very thing this year. Win expects to return to Palm Springs and will be here until the end of March and then expects to go yachting and fishing aboard their new boat.

Bud Graves has been so busy with his new Renaissance Porcelains (the biggest and most exciting to date will be unveiled Feb. 6 when the Mel Eatons host a cocktail-buffet at their Thunderbird Heights home to show the Renaissance porcelain Bud has done for them) that the showing of Vie's annual New Year's portrait is later than usual this year. They have just selected the date for the unveiling party, choosing Feb. 17.

As all of their friends know, Bud does a new portrait of Vie to mark the start of each new year and nearly everyone has their own favorite. All are completely different. This year's is in the new Renaissance effect and life-size, and if it is true to form, it will be the best one yet. You can count on that.

Grace Pope is down from Beverly Hills spending a few days with Bonnie Snyder and looking around for a guest house to rent for a month or so. Grace can stay away from Palm Springs just so long and then she can't stand it any longer.

Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower, very youthful looking and pretty in a print frock, headed the list of guests, when Mrs. Dan Thornton entertained at luncheon at Thunder bird, honoring her mother Mrs. M. Stevenson Willock of Pasadena.

Dan Thornton, who was in San Francisco for a golf tournament, sent his mother-in-law a beautiful white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Eisenhower studied the paintings by members, that are on display in the club lounge, and was particularly interested, when she noted Janice Chiquoine Doud's signature on one of them, as Doud is her own maiden name. (I think Janice told me once that this is the same family line stemming out of England.)

In the luncheon group, which played cards later, were Mmes. Frank Hoy, Eric Stainton, Frank Godchaux, Russell Chace, Mel Eaton, Victor Hugo-Vidal, Walter Cruttenden, Susan Jones, Jack Bligh, Everett Kelloway and Ellsworth Vines.

The former First Lady is certainly settling into the desert routine. She discovered the Village Green and Vivian Varon's Flower Fantasy and has been shipping floral arrangements and hanging flower baskets into the wintry weather back east . . . carrying the message of Palm Springs.

Duke Mitchell's new Palm Springs' address is the Desert Inn, where he's to be found warming up the Roaring 20s Room with that old Duke Mitchellishness. There's to be a regular opening there next Thursday night and Art Leonard, who operates the lounge and dining room couldn't be happier about the whole thing.

Regional Council Workshop Is Held by Epsilon Sigma Alpha

In honor of Angel View Crippled Children's Clinic, manzanita branches were trimmed with miniature angels and an angel centered each luncheon table, when Epsilon Sigma Alpha held the San-Riv-Or Regional Council Workshop in El Mirador Hotel's Starlight Room.

Mrs. George Lamons of Rancho Mirage, president of Zeta Kappa chapter, introduced guest speaker Mrs. Leslie Morgan to the 95 members and guests who had gathered for the all-day affair.

Mrs. Morgan apprised the group of the patient and facility improvements made during the past year at Angel View Clinic, which is the state project of Epsilon Sigma Alpha.

Following the executive board meeting, social hour and luncheon. Mrs. Ann Reed, of Azusa, council president, presided at a business meeting.

Kitty Keily, Palm Springs High School narrated a fashion show, during which sewing students modeled the clothing they had made in classes.

Student-models were: Gay Pelton, Janice Coble, Clare Mitchell, Sue Henwood, Kathy Mathews, Pam Bothum, Ruth Ann Baggett, Terry Gray, Valarie Howe, Pam Mason, Pat Eaton, Jeri Testa and Sandy Nelson.

Advice for the Forty Million Who Will Move

If you are one of the 40 million Americans who will be moving this year, and if you have young children, you can save a lot of needless worries on moving day with a little planning.

Martin Holt, director of research for the world's largest moving and storage firm, offers these hints for moving-day mothers:

Pack an individual bag for baby, including bottles of formula, diapers, powder and other immediate necessities. Don't discover at the last moment that one of these essential items is buried in an unknown carton.

Pack a picnic lunch on moving day so that you don't have to cook at the new home. You can use a thermos for hot soup or hot drinks — especially if gas or electricity is not yet turned on.

Have a few familiar toys ready for the youngsters at the new home. Children present much more of a problem for the unpacking mother when they are bored.

And finally, when the movers are busy, don't lose an opportunity during free moments to help young children overcome moving-day anxieties by assuring them that the new home will be fun and adventuresome and that they can look forward to making exciting new friends.

More than 100 SITA World Tour members gathered at White Sun Guest Ranch for the 29th Annual SITA Reunion, "Carnival in Brazil."

Among the guests were Brazilian Consul Raul de Smandek and his wife, Ed Kelley and Wayne Brockman, western regional manager and district traffic manager for a Brazilian airline; Harold Lady of Pennsylvania; and Mr. and Mrs. Barney Gengenbach.

Roman Fare Adapted for Modern Use

NEW YORK (UPI) — Steamed chicken with garum sauce was popular in imperial Rome. Here is Betty Wason's modern recipe adapted from that of a famous Roman gourmand and author, Apicius.

Combine 2 tablespoons of olive oil with teaspoon each of powdered cumin and anchovy paste, and 1 tablespoon of sweet sherry. Brush a 2½ pound whole chicken with this mixture inside and out. Place chicken on rack in dutch over or large electric saucepan. Pour 1½ cups of water into bottom of pot.

Cover tightly, bring just to a boil (250 degrees on an electric saucepan), lower heat (to 200 degrees), simmer gently about 1¼ hours, or until leg moves easily. Remove chicken, peel off skin and slice meat to serve. Add ½ cup of cream or milk to pot liquid, stir over low heat to blend. Beat 1 egg white until foamy but not stiff. Add to sauce. Stir constantly over low heat until thickened. Serve sauce over chicken.

Musical Program Is Enjoyed at Chi Theta Meet

Lessons in music appreciation occupied members of Chi Theta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, at their January meeting in the home of Mrs. Al Patane on Terrace Road.

The hour and a half program was divided into two parts with Mrs. Patane taking the first subject "Poetry into Music." Mrs. Carl Jackson and Mrs. Harry Esel described "Absolute Music" with recordings of Beethoven and Mozart as examples and included brief biographies of the composers. Excerpts from Grofe's "Grand Canyon Suite" were played to demonstrate the difference between music for the pure joy of harmonious sound and music with a definite purpose.

A question and answer period on the meaning and scope of Beta Sigma Phi International was conducted for the information of prospective new members. A short business meeting completed the evening.

The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ed Donahue on G street, Cathedral City, with programs on the Art of Dance.

Altar Society Plans Dinner

Now there's an oven door that can be changed to open either on left or right side in a few moments. The side-hinged, reversible door can be installed to open as you wish, depending on the kitchen arrangement. The household screwdriver can be used to make the change in less than five minutes, the manufacturer said.

Angels in PS Permanently

To Train Yearly at Ball Park

By BOB ABBEY

"Palm Springs is the spring home for the Los Angeles Angels now and will continue to be," stated Gene Autry, board chairman of the ball club, before more than 100 prominent local baseball boosters during a luncheon Friday.

The famous movie and TV star remarked to the enthusiastic crowd of both men and women Angel boosters, "we are happy to be back in Palm Springs and we consider it our home." "All the ball players enjoy the city and the Angel organization hopes to deliver to you baseball fans an exciting and winning team," he added.

In closing Autry quipped: "Up to now I've made a lot more money with my horse than with the Angels. But we're all pleased to be back here."

Angel Brass

Nearly all the LA Angel organization executives were on hand for the "kick-off" luncheon which officially opened the pre-season activities in the spring home of the Angels.

Flying in Friday morning with Autry, were Bob Reynolds, president, Fred Haney, general manager, Bill Rigney, field skipper, Roland Hemond, director of scouting, George Bryson, George Goodale, promotions director, Albie Pearson, flashy angel outfielder, and several others including newspapermen from Los Angeles and Long Beach.

Irv Kaze, publicity director of the Angels, Marvin Milkes, assistant to Haney, Tommie Ferguson, traveling secretary, Cedric Tallis, and Frank Leary, also of the front office completed the list of Angel executives.

Former All - American football star, Bob Reynolds told the crowd they were proud of the job Rigney had done in 1961 and proud of the ball players. And the organization was looking forward to a long and happy association here in Palm Springs.

General Manager Fred Haney, in a brief talk, mentioned that the Angels were a great deal better off now than a year ago. "We are developing youth and young players," he remarked, "and this time last year we had only 32 ball players and now we have over 100 on the roster," he added. Haney explained that in 1961 the Angels had only one farm club, now in '62, four farm clubs are in the LA Angel fold.

Field Manager

Field skipper Rigney said, "now that the christening of his baby outfit is over, we're going to have to play better. We were novel last year and upset the odd-makers in winning 70 games."

Haney's assistant, Milkes along with Eddie Davidson laid the ground work and arranged the details for the "kick-off" get-together. Milkes introduced the other members of the Angel organization and visiting newsmen.

Palm Springs Mayor Frank Bogert joined Reynolds, Autry and Haney in the cake-cuttng ceremony to salute the first birthday for the Angels in the city.

Baseball Heros

Joining Pearson, two other baseball greats were among the crowd. Stan (The Man) Musial, the St. Louis Cardinal slugger who is vacationing in the desert area and Palm Springs' Lee Walls, who recently joined the Dodger organization, were introduced.

As the LA Angels feted the Palm Springs Angels' boosters, they launched their ticket drive for the 11 exhibition games to be played at the Polo Grounds.

The package deal sells for $25 and there are 1,799 reserved seats at the park, plus 150 box seats and 2,400 unreserved seats. Application forms for the season tickets for the 11 spring training games are now available at the P.S. Angels office located on the Desert Inn grounds.

Before the movie on the birth of the Angels was shown, Milkes mentioned the fact that Palm Springs is the only city in the State of California that has a major league ball team training there.

ONE OF THOSE DAYS

Prowler Lays Egg; Monkey Bites Girl

Palm Springs police looked pensive perusing the bulletin this morning. It was one of those days between fact and fatalism.

At 11:17 p.m. Friday, officers sped to the 1500 block of North Indian Avenue, where a distraught lady reported a prowler.

No prowler was located, but a chicken egg was lying on the lawn, unblemished in its symmetry. Officers are pondering the "what came first" question, adding where to the old riddle. The only other clue was an undistinguished cigarette butt.

At 1:30 p.m. Friday, Rebecca Linn Kates, 8, daughter of Don D. Kates, Pasadena, played with a cute little monkey owned by Ken Johnson, Smoke Tree Ranch. The monkey bit her on the left thumb, according to the report. The disillusioned youngster was treated by a local physician.

J. E. French, 282 El Camino Way, called officers to report a $1,900 platinum ring with a large diamond and two baguettes was lost in his household. He is probing the plumbing for the missing jewelry.

Mrs. Sarah F. Jones, 36, of Panorama City, reported that $83 in cash was taken from a wallet in her room at the El Mirador Hotel late Thursday or early Friday. The matter is under investigation for clues.

Optimists Hear Of Fund Drive For Retarded

A fund raising drive now in progress for the training school for mentally retarded children in Cathedral City was explained to Palm Springs Optimist Club members at their meeting.

Mrs. Richard Deman, co-chairman of the drive, told the club of the need for funds to further the work of the school. It will be climaxed by a Monte Carlo night Feb. 26, to be held at the Desert Inn and include dinner, entertainment, fun tables and fabulous prizes — all for $12.50 per person.

Optimists were alerted to the need for participation by local merchants. They were invited to contact Mrs. Deman or her co-chairman, Mrs. Marjorie Baron.

Heron Haven

Nestled safely in a treetop in Noda, Japan, three recently hatched white herons are kept under watchful eye by mother perched nearby.

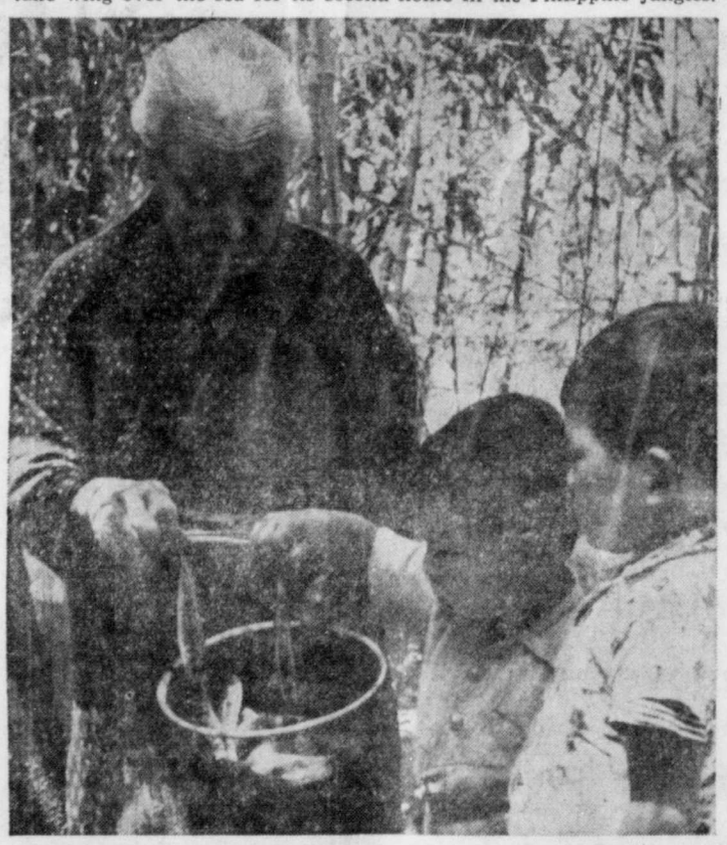
Japanese Villagers Protect Annual Migration of Birds

THE JAPANESE village of Noda, north of Tokyo, is strictly for the birds and the inhabitants would not think of having it any other way. Each year, for centuries, thousands of white herons have migrated to the evergreen forest surrounding Noda for their mating and nesting period. The townspeople have become so enamored of their feathered friends that should one become an orphan or suffer injury, the natives will adopt the young bird, bringing it into their home to feed and nurse it until it can take off on its own.

The big birds have no fear of the people of Noda. It is almost a common sight to see a young bird perched on the handlebars of a youngster's bicycle, looking for all the world like a figurehead.

Once the young herons are strong enough to fly, the entire flock will take wing over the sea for its second home in the Philippine jungles.

Orphaned bird, older and wiser, is released by young benefactor.



In the woods near their home, two Japanese boys dip into a container grandmother holds to select fish to feed young birds.

A fledgling heron that has fallen out of its nest is returned home by a boy using a ladder kept in woods nearby for that purpose.

Graceful young heron hitches a ride through Noda on the handlebar of bicycle. Birds show no fear of the townspeople.

Seated around dinner table, this Noda family are highly amused by antics of a two-week-old heron that the children found abandoned in the forest. Almost every local family, at one time or another, has adopted birds that have been abandoned by parents.

FIRST DVL DEFEAT

Broncs KO Tribe, 53-37

BANNING — It was a sad night for the Palm Springs Indians, as they lost their share of first place in the Desert Valley League when they dropped their first league game to the red-hot Banning Broncos, 53-37.

Both high school quintets were riding a 3-0 record going into last nights game, but after the lopsided Bronc victory it left Banning holding a tight grip on the top of the ladder.

Large Crowd

Before a crowd of over 750 cage fans, the two league leaders going into last nights game played each other on even terms during the first quarter. It was a 11-11 ball game going into the period before halftime and with each team playing a heads-up game. Then the roof fell in as the Tribemen made several miscue's in the ball handling department. Before all this, the score was knotted, 15-15 with a little over 30 seconds remaining before intermission time. But the winning Broncos slipped in nine tallies before the stanza ended and walked off the floor with a 24-15 halftime margin.

Ray Curtis, 6-2 Banning center, turned in an excellent night as he took game honors in pouring in 23 markers at the pivot spot. He collected 20 of those points in the first three periods.

At the end of the third stanza, the Indians found themselves facing a 19 deficit as the Broncos led, 41-22. The Tribemen had their biggest scoring spurt in the final stanza as they outscored the Banning five, 15-12, but the damage had a ready been done and the final score at the sound of the buzzer ending the game was 53-37.

Taylor Hits 15

The league leading scorer going into last nights game, Tyron Taylor, fell below his 21 point average as he bagged 15 points. tThe Whiz-Kid had been held to five tallies going into the final period, but found the range and added 10 to the score book during the last quarter of play.

The Papooses [illegible] in the Bee game as they lost a thriller, 53-51, as Charlie Johnson hit a two-pointer with four seconds remaining in the gzme to break the tie and spell victory. At halftime, the "Little Indians" held a 26-16 lead.

Mamie Van Doren Has Scruples on Cosmetics

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)— Mamie Van Doren is too modest to walk on a stage nude, but is doing the next best thing for her night club in Las Vegas tonight.

The blonde tigress is wearing a tight-fitting flesh-colored leotard.

A fully clothed feminine entertainer in Las Vegas is about as popular as breaking the bank in the gambling casinos.

So every female star, with the possible exception of Sophie Tucker, wears as little as possible. Frequently it is as little as the law allows, and the laws are most liberal in this regard.

"I've reduced my costume to a bare minimum," Mamie said, giggling at her play on words.

Mamie has a right to giggle. The Riviera Hotel is paying her $12,000 a week, which comes to a neat $50,000 for her four-week stand. Ingemar Johannson would pull on a pair of leotards for that kind of money, and he wouldn't have to worry about lumps from Floyd Patterson.

"It's not an ordinary leotard," the Mamie said.

"It has hundreds of beads on it in strategic locations. They were all hand sewed. Of course I didn't do the sewing and it cost me almost $2,000. That's a lot of money.

"It would have been less expensive for me to wear nothing at all."

Asked what's with this in the buff stuff, the shapely little doll explained that so many Las Vegas shows feature nude chorus girls that a star sometimes is not the center of all eyes.

"I sing, dance and entertain in my new act," she went on, "but sometimes just being talented is not enough, if you know what I mean.

"Most of the chorus girls just have pretty figures, but they don't sing or dance. I guess I'm lucky that I can entertain with all my assets."

Mamie recalled that Marlene Dietrich set the pace for near-nude costumes in Vegas less than 10 years ago. She feels she merely is going along with the trend.

"I don't feel self-conscious about it," Mamie said.

"The feminine figure can be very artistic and beautiful. And if that's what people like to see in a night club who am I to fight the public."

You could almost hear a million men shout, "Don't fight it, Mamie."

Lesson-Sermon From Psalms at Science Church

Today's demand for progress based on a true comprehension of God's nearness and all-power will be stressed Sunday at all Christian Science church services.

Highlighting the Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Truth" is the Golden Text from Psalms (119: 151,160), "Thou art near, O Lord; and all thy commandments are truth . . .They word is true from the beginning."

When "Jesus went up into the temple and taught. And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoewst this man letters, having never learned? Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself" (John 7:14-17).

Annual Meeting Set Tomorrow

Platforms Should Have Been JCDUP Business

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Congressional Joint Committee on the Disposition of Useless Papers (JCDUP) should have remained in business long enough to deal with the 1960 Democratic presidential platform. It might deal with the 1960 Republican presidential platform, too.

The 1960 Democratic platform would have had prior rights to the committee's attention, however, because the Democrats elected their man in 1960. Their man was Sen. John F. Kennedy. President Kennedy will deliver Thursday to a joint session of the Congress his message on the state of the Union.

The message will offer the voters a lesson in basic politics. It will be a miracle if the voters learn this lesson. It has been offered to them before by one party and then by another without much effect on the electorate. The lesson is that campaign platforms are mostly humbug.

Both Parties Guilty

Republican campaign platforms are no better than Democratic campaign platforms. Both parties make platform promises to attract the votes of racial and other pressure groups. On platform promises, the sky is the limit or, maybe, what the traffic will bear.

The Democrats seem to offend more often with these voter-bait promises than do the Republicans. There are reasons for that. First, the Democrats are accustomed to out-promising the Republicans although the Republicans are handy, too, with lip service. Second, the Democrats of late have more often elected their presidential candidates. A presidential candidate who runs on a well-ballyhooed campaign platform and then reneges on major parts of it finds himself in a conspicuous position.

President Kennedy finds himself today in such a position. It is because Kennedy reneged that it seems reasonable to suggest the JCDUP should give its attention to the 1960 Democratic presidential platform. The JCDUP went out of business 10 years ago. Congressmen were reluctant to be known as members of a committee with such a purpose the disposition of useless papers.

So, 10 years ago the committee's name was changed. It now is the Joint Committee on Disposition of Executive Papers (JCDE). More dignified! If the 1960 presidential platform is an executive paper, the next move is up to JCDE. JCDE will not move. It is part of the unwritten law of politics that politicians may delude the voters without penalty unless penalty by the voters themselves.

Forgetful Voters

It is a shocking thing that political parties can get away with such humbuggery. They do get away with it, however. So the real shocker in this situation is that U. S. voters are such a meat-headed lot as to accept as valid the promises politicians make to buy votes.

For example: Consider the all-inclusive Democratic platform promises on civil rights. President Kennedy forgot most of those promises in his 1961 message. He probably will forget again Thursday. Perhaps politicians like humbug platforms for good reason.

They win elections.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Civil Aeronautics Board has given the major airlines another two weeks in which to decide how they should fine themselves for overselling flights.

New Translator Towers Will Improve Service

New towers for the Translator Televsion station on Mt. Santa Rosa will give improved quality to the automatic relay systems which brings three San Diego network stations into the Palm Springs area, Frank Bennett, president, reported.

"Even with the damage of the storms, which caused use of some temporary equipment now, the reception is understandable. With the new towers, due next week, it will be sharply improved," Bennett said.

The translator station, located at the 7,200 feet level on Mt. Santa Rosa, has been snowed in for three days after the near-record snowfall early this week.

"Frank Moore, who was servicing the automatic equipment, was brought out Wednesday as a precaution," Bennett reported. He explained that Moore had ample shelter, heat, power and food in the remote station, but 18 inches of snow on access roads with drifts up to four feet led the decision to evacuate until the roads were cleared.

"The automatic equipment continued in service," Bennett said.

Herman Ganam and William Stitz of Valley Equipment Rentals brought Moore out of his snowy post. The men returned to the scene today to retrieve some snowbound equipment.

Film Featured

"Trekking the Tibetan Border," a rare adventure film, will be featured at the Desert Museum Feb. 16 as the second in a series of features, according to Dr. C. E. Smith, director.

The first of the series, "Polynesian Paradise," played to a full house in the museum's new auditorium.

There will be a total of five film presentations in the series based on the theme "The World Around Us." Dr. Smith said admission tickets may be obtained at the museum.

Hot Springs Chamber in Dinner Soon

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Frank J. Gelinas, executive vice president and manager of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce will be featured speaker for a Jan. 31 chamber dinner here.

The dinner meet, scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. in the 8th Street Community Center, will be catered by Hayden's Restaurant and O'Harra's, a chamber spokesman said.

Entertainment for the $2.50 per plate dinner will be provided by May's Trio.

Gelinas is a graduate of the Institute for Organizational Management, Stanford University, and a member of the American Chamber of Commerce Executives as the U. S. Chamber of Commerce housing committee. He also belongs to the state Association of Chamber of Commerce Managers, and is a member of the advisory committee om local chamber service of the national chamber.

Tickets for the dinner may be obtained in the chamber office, or at two stores designated sales agents.
